

sinclair broadcasting onto Kerry special is nothing but a political advertisement. I find it an outrage to our democracy that the equal time rules are not being applied to this so-called documentary.